A MYSTERY CLEARING.

The Murderer of Zora Burns Said to be Caught.

Great Excitement Prevailing at Lincoln—The Mysterious Whedon Arrested in Iowa—What He Says—Alleged Confession of the Alleged Assassin Who Says He Was Hired to Do the Deed.

LINCOLN, ILL., Oct. 29.—LATER.—The excitement here has been intensified by later dispatches. These come from Hampton, not Houston, Iowa, and are to the effect that Whedon has not himself confessed the crime, but that through his information the guilty man has been identified, arrested, and induced to make a clean breast of his connection with the affair. He admits killing the girls, it is asserted, and admits that he did the deed deliberately and in cold blood, having no personal motive for butchering the unfortunate girl, but doing so simply because he was hired for the job, and earned his money as per agreement. Neither he assassin's name, nor the name of the person who, he alleges, hired him to commit the crime are yet reported. The excitement in town is now so great that it would not be safe for either one or the other to be in the vicinity and identified. Of course the statement that the murderer was the work of a hired assassin turns the attention of those who are suspicious of Carpenter towards him as the one who paid for the butchery, he having, they claim, borth the money and the motive. On the other hand, those who are friendly to Carpenter, and public opinion is about evenly divided for and against him, claim that the meagre particulars, so far as they have been learned, tend to relieve him of the weight of suspicion. Circumstances under which he has heretofore labored. Further details are awaited with intense eagerness, and until they are received all is mere matter of speculation.

LINCOLN, ILL., Oct. 29.—If attention was paid to the alarming rumors in circulation the murder mystery of Zora Burns would be cleared up to-morrow. A mysterious man has been here a few days working altogether a different clue to those heretofore pursued. He claims to have seen evidence of a struggle, the foot-prints of a man and woman, and to have found a bloody skirt under a small bridge on a road which had not been traveled by the detectives. The return of the State's Attorney may bring something new and give an anxious public a better insight than they have yet obtained.

CHICAGO, Oct. 29.—A dispatch from Lincoln, Ill., says the wildest excitement prevails over information from Houston, Ia., to the effect that State Attorney Forrest has obtained the arrest of Thomas Whedon, who stated recently that he knew important facts regarding Zora Burn's murder. An unconfirmed rumor is prevalent that Whedon confessed the murder.

VALUE OF AN EYE.

The Price Fixed at Five Thousand Dollars.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 29.—The jury in the case of Loring Sparks against the Citizens' Coach Company, rendered a verdict of $5,000 for the plaintiff. Sparks is a young man, and at the time of the accident upon which suit was instituted, was employed as a clerk in a dry goods store. For some time he had been a patron of the coach company, which runs a line of omnibuses through various streets of Camden. Finding the coach desired to enter one evening crowded, he took a seat on the driver's box, situated in front of the vehicle. The latter in applying his whip to the horses struck Sparks in the eye with the lash. In the course of a few weeks a cataract formed over the pupil of the injured eye, completely destroying the sight. An action for the recovery of $10,000 damages against the company was brought by Sparks, with the result stated. It was admitted by the defendants that passengers were permitted to ride on the driver's seat when the coach was crowded, and that fares were collected from passengers in this position without objection.

Attempted Suicide.

TOLEDO, O., Oct. 29.—Emanuel Lecknow, aged seventy, attempted to kill himself at Napoleon by shooting himself through the head. The wound, however, it is thought, will not prove fatal, as he is conscious, and the ball only passed through the skin and then off the skull. Lecknow has just got out of the poor house, and his sons refused to give him a home or care for him. He thereupon declared he would put an end to himself rather than go back again to the poor house.

Postoffice Robbed.

OTTAWA, Ill., Oct. 29.—The postoffice in this county, nine miles north of here, was entered by burglars. The safe was blown open and $700 taken.

AMONG the causes which led to the suspension of the New York and Liverpool service of the Anchor Line are said to be the strong opposition of the older lines in that trade, the depression of freights and the falling off of the passenger traffic toward the end of the touring season. As the line from Liverpool was an experimental one, it is not likely to be resumed.

The laying of a new cable across the narrows in New York Bay was successfully accomplished Sunday afternoon, completing the system of twenty-one wires of the Baltimore and Ohio Telegraph Company between New York and Baltimore.

A Tug Blows Up Killing the Crew.

MOBILE, Ala., Oct. 29.—The tug, H. W. Edye blew up and sank in the lower bay last night. She is a complete loss. The engineer was saved, but the crew of six were lost.

A BOY TRAIN WRECKER.

He Smashed Trains in Order "to See the Cars Jump."

LANCASTER, Pa., Oct. 29.—The trial of Jacob Ganaway, a youth about fourteen years of age, has just closed here. He was charged with wrecking a train on the Reading & Columbia Road, which caused the death of George M. Hain, Master Mechanic of the road, in May last. Ganaway was the most indifferent person in the courtroom during the trial, evidently not realizing the extent of his crime. He wrecked the train by placing a large heavy plank upon the track, and then went on a short distance away to see "how the cars would jump," as he remarked when arrested. The train was running about fifteen miles an hour when the engine struck the plank, throwing it down a steep embankment, turning it over on its side and crushing Mr. Hain under the fire box and literally roasting him alive. The fireman and engineer received severe but not fatal injuries only saving themselves by jumping. There was considerable trouble in selecting a jury. The defense was that the boy was weak minded and not responsible for his crime. The case was given to the jury, who, after one and a half hours, returned a verdict of guilty of involuntary manslaughter, and recommending Ganaway to the mercy of the court. Sentence was deferred. Probably an application will be made for a new trial.

A FATAL BLOW.

One "Slug" With the Bare Fist Kills a Blacksmith.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Oct. 29.—At Lowell in this county, Wm. Shanley, a dissipated blacksmith, accosted Charles Hodges, clerk at Train's hotel in that village, and renewed a quarrel of the night before. He finally became so abusive that Hodges struck him a terrible blow, felling him to the earth. The man lay in a comatose condition, which was thought to be a drunken stupor, for nearly five hours, when he was removed to his home, where he died, without having recovered consciousness. The post mortem shows that death was caused by the breaking of a blood-vessel near the base of the brain. The physicians think that death may have been caused by dissipation rather than by the blow. The Coroner held an inquest this afternoon, and a verdict was rendered that the deceased came to his death ~~from~~ the rupture of a blood-vessel from causes to the jury unknown. Hodges was arrested for assault and battery. He is a much-esteemed young man, and public sympathy is on his side.

FOUL PLAY.

Mysterious Death of Lizzie Holmes, of Grand Rapids.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Oct. 29.—The coroner's jury investigating the death of Lizzie Holmes, who was found dead in bed here have found circumstances which point strongly to the conclusion that it was a case of murder instead of suicide. The theory is that some person accompanied her to her rooms on Sunday night, and murdered her for the purpose of robbery. It is known that she had about $150 a day or two before her death, which is now missing, with other valuables. A man to whom she is said to have been engaged to be married, and who had formed the subject of frequent quarrels with other men, has disappeared, leaving no clew as to his whereabouts. The remains of the woman will probably be examined for chemical examination, to ascertain if death was caused by poison. The coroner's inquest is still in progress, and a verdict will not be reached for some days.

SENSATIONAL DIVORCE SUIT.

The Culmination of Mr. John H. Austin's Frisky Career.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—A suit for divorce has been commenced by Mrs. John H. Austin, wife of John H. Austin, of Jersey City, whose arrest on a charge of abandonment led to the disclosure of his numerous intimacies with young girls throughout New Jersey and New York. The co-respondent will be Miss Mills, granddaughter of Cornelius Mills and a member of one Jersey City's wealthiest families, with whom Austin was staying when arrested at a hotel in Red Bank, N. J. Mrs. Austin said that she only had her husband arrested in order that she might get the papers in her divorce suit served upon him. The papers were served last week, when Mrs. Austin withdrew from the charge of abandonment. Miss Mills is expected to aid Mrs. Austin in getting her divorce.

STRANGE SUICIDE.

The Sad Death of a Beautiful and Gifted Young Lady.

NEWTON, Mass., Oct. 29.—Mabel Stone, aged seventeen, adopted daughter of Jos. L. Stone, a prominent and wealthy citizen, committed suicide Saturday afternoon. She was very gifted and beautiful, and had all that money could buy lavished upon her. Of late she has acted strangely. Saturday she came down stairs with a revolver. After a struggle with the housekeeper she latter wrung it from her. The girl ran up stairs, took another revolver from a closet, tore herself away from the housekeeper's clutch, who had followed her, threw herself upon a bed, placed the muzzle to her temple and fired, death ensuing in a few moments. She left no message or sign. Her parents were in Boston at the time.

A STOLEN CHILD.

The Queer Case Just Revealed at Erie, Pennsylvania.

ERIC, Pa., Oct. 29.—The stolen child found in the possession of a suspicious-looking and partly demented young man, calling himself Thomas J. Rooney, of Toledo, turns out to be Mamie Ann Mulcahey, of Hamilton, Canada, where she was procured from the Sisters of Charity, upon conditions of adoption into Rooney's family, who are wealthy people of Toledo. Rooney, who attempted suicide last night, has been using the child for several months for procuring money and railroad transportation. He is held to await the arrival of his father.

FATHER HYACINTHE.

Arrival of the Distinguished Clergyman in New York.

The Object of His Visit to America as Expressed By Himself—He Will Attack No Man's Faith and Expect to Offend No Man—His Wife's Illness at Washington.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—The Rev. Charles Loyson, Pere Hyacinthe, arrived here Saturday from Liverpool in the steamer Alaska. He was met at the wharf by the Rev. M. Field, editor of the New York Evangelist, and the greeting between them was very cordial. There was no demonstration and no one but Mr. Field was present to welcome the distinguished polemic which was in marked contrast with the elaborate reception extended to him on his former visit to this country, soon after his rupture with the Catholic Church. He seemed to feel the change keenly. To a reporter he said: "I expected that my wife would meet me here, but Mr. Field informs me that she is ill in Washington. I will go there after taking a very brief rest."

THE proceedings against the crooked pension claim agents are frightening the members of that too numerous fraternity. Some of them are making virtual confession in a hope of escaping more easily by that course.

THE completed Cincinnati and Eastern, according to the report of the receiver, will have liabilities aggregating $2,247,745. This will include the cost of changing the road to a standard gauge, but not the outlay that will be necessary for standard gauge rolling stock.

THE special agent appointed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue to investigate the organization in West Virginia known as "Red Men" have made a report. He says the members of that organization "are not engaged in protecting violators of the internal revenue laws."

THE Commissioner of pensions has discovered irregularities in the practice of Belva A. Lockwood, the female lawyer, who has a large number of cases pending before the Pension Bureau, and it is understood that the question of suspending her from practice before the bureau is now being considered by the Commissioner and the Secretary of the Interior.

MR. HOWARD VINCENT, the English Director of Criminal Investigation, places the direct cost of crime in England, Wales and Scotland at $30,000,000. Over 74,000 persons are maintained for the prevention, detection and punishment of crime and control of criminals. But he points out that inasmuch as $25,657 persons (being nearly 1 in 36 of the population) were either apprehended, proceeded against, or cited, neither the criminal staff nor the cost could be deemed excessive. Of this enormous number but 94,867 were arrested for offences against the person, and 122,761 for those against property. Mr. Vincent is a staunch upholder of capital punishment. He believes that it is due to the certainty of this being inflicted that London had far fewer capital crimes than Paris, Berlin and Vienna. In Great Britain about fifty per cent. of those sentenced to death are executed, in France less than forty-six per cent., in Austria about two per cent. and in Germany only one-fifth per cent. He firmly believes flogging to be the best deterrent to crimes of personal violence.

THE first public action since the Supreme Court decided against the constitutionality of the civil rights law is that taken by Senator Brown, of Georgia, as President of the State Road of Georgia and head of the Georgia syndicate. He has announced that the policy he intends to pursue in respect to persons of both races traveling on the Western and Atlantic Railroad is to provide separate cars for the whites and blacks, with as comfortable accommodation for the colored people paying the same price as that provided for the white. But while making this arrangement he states that he will be more careful than ever to see that the colored people have their full rights on the trains. The conductors will be ordered neither to permit white people to intrude upon colored nor the latter upon the white. In all other respects they are to be treated alike. In the States East of the Potomac, and probably also in Virginia under the Mahone rule, the intermixing of white and colored people on the trains will, it is to be presumed, be permitted as usual. East of Maryland the colored people form so small a sprinkling of passengers that it would entail a heavy expense upon companies to run separate cars for their exclusive use, and even in Maryland it is just to say that the colored people as a rule have shown themselves to be so well behaved that the whites have no just cause to complain of them. Long before the Supreme Court decision was announced the relations between the two races were being quietly adjusted by mutual though tacit consent. It was a law that had been ignored on both sides, and the only effect of its remaining on the statute book would have been to encourage vexatious litigation.

TOO ENTERPRISING.
A Corry Dress-Maker Gets Herself Into Trouble.

CORRY, Pa., Oct. 29.—A week ago an attractive-looking woman opened rooms here and announced herself as Miss Russell, mantua-maker, and inventor of the Russell system of fitting ladies' garments. She advertised for young ladies to learn the system, charging a fee and promising her pupils remunerative employment when they should have become proficient. She has now been arrested on a telegram from Chief of Police Tilton, of Easton, Pa., saying she was wanted in that city for obtaining money and goods under false pretense and defrauding hotel keepers. The woman wanted in Easton is Mrs. J. C. Goodwin, but, as the description and method of working confidence games are identical, there seems to be little doubt that Mrs. Goodwin and Miss Russell are one and the same person.

THE EARTHQUAKE EPIDEMIC.
Further Account of the Destruction in Asia Minor.

LONDON, Oct. 29.—There are renewals of the earthquakes at the eastern end of the Mediterranean, involving an extensive loss of life and property. Smyrna had been warned in time and the people were prepared to escape so that the loss of life was small, but the loss of property is very heavy. The walls which have stood since the crusades, were thrown down, the ancient aqueduct was destroyed, and mosques and churches ruined. The people are panic-stricken, and the town is temporarily almost deserted. The inhabitants are camping on the frontier. It is said that in some of the smaller towns the loss of life has been very heavy. The Aegean sea was agitated in many places. The shocks have been felt in Greece, and, at Capriwoola alone, 170 persons are reported as having been hurt.

REMARKABLE CHURCH.

Three Men Fall From Its Spire and Escape Unhurt.

WATERBURY, Conn., Oct. 29.—Last Thursday a despatch related the miraculous escape of a man named John Vogel, who fell seventy-five feet from the new Trinity Church spire at this place. On Saturday last two other men were working on a scaffold at the gable end of the same church, when the scaffolding gave way, precipitating them a distance of forty feet to the ground. Both of these men also escaped serious injury.

Serious Riot in Germany.

BREMEN, Oct. 29.—A serious riot occurred at Oldenburg, twenty-four miles from this city, yesterday. The house of a Prussian officer, who had been heard to speak in disparagement of the native soldiers, was attacked by a mob. The police interfered to protect the house when the mob turned upon them. A fierce fight ensued, in which several were killed on both sides. Stones and clubs were freely used. After the riot had subsided placards were found posted in various parts of the town threatening a massacre of the Prussian soldiers in the garrison.

THE SLUGGING EPIDEMIC

Another Disgraceful Pounding Affair Down East.

"Mickey the Stuff" and Another Gor-rilla Maul Each Other Down on Long Island—Timely Intervention of the Police Makes Another Set-to Necessary.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—About 200 men from Brooklyn and New York visited a resort in the neighborhood of Long Island City yesterday to witness a fight according to the Marquis of Queensbury rules between "Mickey" Cummings, alias "Mick the Stuff," and "Jack" McCarthy, alias "English Jack," for a purse of $100 and the middle-weight championship. "Jack" Londergan, of Williamsburg, was selected referee and stakeholder. After three rounds had been fought, it which McCarthy had the best of it, some one cried "police," and the crowd dispersed in all directions. On time being called for the next round, McCarthy stepped into the ring, but Cummings could not be found. McCarthy claimed the stakes, but the referee refused to give them up, declaring that the men should fight it out. The men will meet again next week.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.

Criminal Carelessness Causes a Fatal Accident.

CHICAGO, Oct. 29.—A report just reaches here that a heavily loaded passenger train on the Pan Handle road collided with a Michigan Central freight at the Grand Trunk crossing near Dyer, Ind., about forty miles from this city. The brakeman of the freight, named Kellogg, a target tender, and the engineer and fireman of the passenger train are reported killed. The target tender is buried under the debris and burned to a crisp. Other casualties are probable. The railroad company have, however, control of the telegraph facilities to the place and refuse to make the slightest statement. The accident resulted from gross neglect of the rule that all trains must stop 800 yards before the crossings. The target tender was asleep in his shanty beside the track when the passenger engine crashed into the shanty, setting it on fire. The man was burned to a crisp in his bed. John Kellogg, a freight brakeman, was also killed. The Pan Handle engineer Norris was crushed to death, and the fireman, name unknown, living in Chicago, was seriously injured. Both engines and a number of cars were wrecked. No passengers hurt.

Naval Changes.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 29.—Rear Admiral Crosby, commanding the Asiatic Station, was requested to be retired immediately and ordered home, which the Secretary of the Navy has approved. His retirement promotes Commodore A. C. Ryan, now Naval Governor at Philadelphia, rear Admiral.

AYER'S Cherry Pectoral.

No other complaints are so insidious in their attack as those affecting the throat and lungs: none so trifled with by the majority of sufferers. The ordinary cough or cold, resulting perhaps from a trifling or unconscious exposure, is often but the beginning of a fatal sickness. AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has well proven its efficacy in a forty years' fight with throat and lung diseases, and should be taken in all cases without delay.

A Terrible Cough Cured.

"In 1852 I took a severe cold which affected my lungs. I had a terrible cough and passed nights after night without sleep. The doctors gave me up. I tried AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, which relieved my lungs, induced sleep, and afforded me the rest necessary for the recovery of my strength. By the continued use of the PECTORAL a permanent cure was effected. I am now 62 years old, have no trouble with my lungs, and consider myself a healthy man. HORACE FAIRBANKS, Rockingham, Vt., July 15, 1882."
